

In the worst case, how many function calls will be made from a single function ?

Can you take a 3x3 matrix for V, and examine the number of calls ?